APPLICATION FOR A
COMMUNICATIONS DATA
WARRANT

STATE OF NEW JERSEY )
                                  ) SS COUNTY OF BERGEN )

MCC-SRM-BER314 -CDW-06

I, Detective Sergeant George Buono of full age, being duly sworn according to law, upon my oath, depose and say:

1. I am a law enforcement officer with the Emerson Police Department in the capacity of a Detective Sergeant. In said capacity, I have the responsibility for investigation of all violations of the criminal laws, and more particularly violations of the New Jersey Domestic Violence Act.

2. Application is hereby made ex parte for an order for authorization to obtain stored electronic communications, e-mails, all detailed billing information, methods and history of payments, Internet Protocol connection data, Internet Protocol addresses, methods of connection, connection times and dates, subscriber name, address, contact telephone numbers, and full account(s) information associated with Yahoo! ID cb_express and Yahoo! Email address cb_express@yahoo.com from Thomas Investigative Communications and/or website URL http://utrackonline.com.

3. The facts which establish the grounds for this application and probable cause for my belief that such grounds exist are as follows:

I, George R. Buono, have been a law enforcement officer in the state of New Jersey for the past 21½ years. I am a graduate of the Bergen County Police and Fire Academy (22 weeks) and I am certified by the New Jersey Police Training Commission. During this training I was instructed in the areas of Criminal Law, Motor Vehicle Law, Arrest, Search and Seizure, Drug Identification, Computer Crimes Interviewing and Interrogation and Evidence Collection.

During my first 11 years, I served in the capacity of a uniformed patrol officer. My primary duties were to detect and apprehend criminal offenders, to enforce motor vehicle laws and borough ordinances and to service the residents of the Borough of Emerson. In January 1998, I was promoted to Sergeant and remained in the patrol division until I was promoted to Detective Sergeant in March of 2000, where I currently serve. Some of my duties as a Detective Sergeant include coordinating all criminal investigations, evidence management and collection, computer crimes, interviewing witnesses, interrogating suspects, and drug interdiction and investigation.

During my employment with the Emerson Police Department, I have attended the following training courses: an eight hour course in drug education and pharmacology, an eighty hour course in basic narcotics & dangerous drugs given by the Drug Enforcement Administration, an eight hour course in drug interdiction given by the New Jersey State Police, a twenty-four hour course in advanced narcotics and surveillance given by the Bergen County Prosecutors Office, a forty hour course in advanced criminal investigation given by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, a thirty-two hour course in interviewing and interrogation techniques given by the New Jersey Division of Criminal Justice, a forty-eight hour course in "Top Gun" narcotics investigation training given by the New Jersey Division of Criminal Justice, a sixteen hour training course in seizures and forfeitures given by the New Jersey Division of Criminal Justice, a sixteen hour course on recognizing designer drugs given by the High Intensity Drug Trafficking Area, an eight hour course in hidden compartments given by the New Jersey State Police, a forty hour course in narcotics investigation given by the High Intensity Drug Trafficking Area, and a twenty-four hour course in computer crimes and electronic surveillance.

In my career I have personally participated in approximately 550 investigations and arrests of approximately 450 individuals for violations of Federal and State Laws, including violations of the Controlled Dangerous Substance Act of New Jersey, the Comprehensive Drug Reform Act of 1997, and the Alternatives to the New Jersey Domestic Violence Act. I have also participated in several search warrants where controlled dangerous substances, packaging equipment and drug paraphernalia were seized and narcotic violators were arrested. Additionally I have participated in approximately (5) search warrants for the seizure of computers and other electronic surveillance equipment.

As a result of my training, education and experience, I am also aware that analysis and comparison of certain telephone and computer records is often instrumental in determining where a particular crime occurred, how it occurred, and whether a particular person was involved in the criminal episode.

DEFINITIONS:

The following words and definitions are pertinent to this investigation and are contained within this affidavit for search warrant:

Global Positioning System (GPS) - More than two dozen GPS satellites orbit the Earth, transmitting radio signals which allow GPS receivers to determine their location, speed and direction. GPS receivers can be placed on a person or object.

Internet Protocol (IP) address - is an identifier for a computer or device on a TCP/IP (Transmission Control Protocol / Internet Protocol) network. Networks using the TCP/IP protocol route messages based on the IP address of the destination. The format of an IP address is a 32-bit numeric address written as four numbers separated by periods. Each number can be zero to 255. For example, 1.160.10.240 could be an IP address. Within an isolated network, you can assign IP addresses at random as long as each one is unique. However, connecting a private network to the Internet requires using registered IP addresses (called Internet addresses) to avoid duplicates. The four numbers in an IP address are used in different ways to identify a particular network and a host on that network.

Internet Service Provider (ISP) - a company that provides individuals and other companies access to the Internet, commonly for a fee, through telephone, cable or satellite connections. Some ISP's also offer an extensive online array of services of their own apart from the rest of the Internet, such as email access, newsgroup access, instant message chat, etc.

IMEI Number -- the International Mobile Equipment Identity or IMEI for short is a unique number that is given to many mobile devices. The IMEI number is generally used to identify the mobile device on the wireless network that the device is operating within.

SIM card -- a Subscriber Identity Module is a smart card roughly the size of a postage stamp that securely stores the key identifying a mobile phone service subscriber, as well as subscription information, saved telephone numbers, preferences, text messages and other information.

Uniform Resource Locator (URL) - specifies the location of and is the address of a file or resource accessible on the Internet. For example, the URL of the Bergen County Prosecutor's Office website is www.bcpo.net.

On September 27, 2006 Mrs. Linda Curley of 4 Meadowbrook Lane, Suffern, New York was involved in a motor vehicle crash on Sutton Way in Washington Township, New Jersey. As a result of that crash Rich's Auto Body, located at 50 Chestnut Street in Emerson, New Jersey, was dispatched to remove the vehicle from the accident scene. During the recovery of the vehicle, the tow truck operator observed that several parts had separated from the vehicle due to the crash. The operator collected these parts and placed them in the vehicle's interior. One of these parts was a magnetic weatherproof "Otter box" containing, what appeared to be, some type of GPS tracking device. The vehicle was then transported back to the tow yard on Chestnut Street in Emerson where it remained waiting for an insurance adjuster to prepare the claim.

On October 9, 2006 Mr. Richard Tuntigian, the owner of Rich's Auto Body was at his shop at approximately 9:30 AM when he observed an occupied vehicle described as a 2005 Acura MDX, color blue, bearing New York registration DCL-2018 parked across the street from his shop. Mr. Tuntigian stated that he did not pay much attention to the vehicle at that time until two hours later when he again observed the same vehicle parked across the street from his shop. This time he confronted the man who occupied the vehicle in an attempt to determine why he was hanging around his shop for the last two hours. Mr. Tuntigian stated that the male identified himself as Jim Harris of 4

Willowtree Rd., Suffern New York. Mr. Harris stated that he was there to get an estimate on his vehicle that had been damaged sometime in the past. Mr. Tuntigian informed the police that his normal course of doing an estimate on a vehicle entails him writing the vehicle's vehicle identification number (VIN) on a piece of paper and then asking the owner of the vehicle to write his or her personal information. As such, Mr. Tuntigian wrote down the Acura's VIN number on a pad and then asked Mr. Harris to write down his personal information (name, address, phone number) on it, as he went to the rear of the vehicle to record the damage. When Mr. Tuntigian returned, the driver handed him back the pad with the information Tuntigian requested. When Mr. Tuntigian looked at what had been written, he noticed that the driver had altered the Acura's VIN number that Tuntigian had written on the pad prior to giving it to the driver. This raised Mr. Tuntigian's suspicions, which prompted him to record the Acura's license plate number of the vehicle on the pad. He then told the driver that he would prepare the estimate and call him later in the day. The driver then left the area in the Acura.

Based on what had transpired, Mr. Tuntigian called the Emerson Police Department to advise us as to what had occurred. Officer Scott O'Connor was dispatched to Rich's Auto Body. At that time Mr. Tuntigian told Officer O'Connor what had occurred and gave him a copy of the pad containing the hand written information that was recorded earlier. As part of the preliminary investigation Officer O'Connor entered the NY registration into the computer to determine the owner of the Acura. The computer relayed that the vehicle was owned by a Mr. James Curley of 14 Madison Hill Road, Suffern, New York. The vehicle description matched the information received from NY-DMV. Officer O'Connor then advised Mr. Tuntigian of the vehicle owner's name. After hearing the name of James Curley, Mr. Tuntigian recalled that he had taken in a 2006 Honda Accord a few weeks earlier as a result of an accident with the owner's name of Linda Curley. He also recalled that he had spoken to Mrs. Curley a few days earlier and at that time she expressed to him that she was going through a nasty divorce and did not want he husband to know about the accident. He then showed Officer O'Connor the GPS tracking device that was collected at the accident scene by his tow truck driver. Officer O'Connor took the information for a report.

The next day, Officer O'Connor informed me about his investigation and I met with Mr. Tuntigian, who reiterated to me what had transpired. Mr. Tuntigian also handed me the tracking device that found at the accident scene. I brought the device back to headquarters with the purpose of determining it's owner. In examining the device, which is a Trutrak location device, it appeared that it was powered by four AA batteries, which were installed in the device and still emitting a signal. I also located a SIM card under the battery pack. The name Topp Data Solutions along with a website URL of www.topp-inc.com was printed on the SIM card. Through that web site I contacted the company and spoke with Mr. Michael Rodriguez, who was able to tell me that this particular device had been purchased by Thomas Investigative Communications in Austin, Texas. I contacted Thomas Investigative Communications and spoke with Mr. Cody Woods, the system administrator. I was able to give him the SIM card tracking number that was printed on the card (89017-40210-00003-7342). Through that number he was able to retrieve the IMEI number for the device (010307000232022). It should be noted that the IMEM number had been removed from the device in, what I believed to be an attempt to by the user hinder the ability to track the ownership of the device. The IMEI number revealed that the recorded owner of the tracking device was Mr. Edward Holland of 57 Old Little Britan Road, Newburgh, New York. They were also able to tell me that Mr. Holland was paying the monthly service charge with a VISA credit card and that the information was being accessed through a Yahoo! e-mail account with an e-mail address of cb_express@yahoo.com. I was advised by Mr. Woods that I could obtain the tracking information for the device by warrant.

The following day I spoke with Mrs. Linda Curley and advised her of my findings. She told me that she has been embroiled in a heated divorce with her husband and that she was issued an order of protection from her husband on July 23, 2006, which prohibited him from any contact, stalking, harassment, menacing, intimidation, or threats. I then asked her if she knew Mr. Edward Holland from 57 Old Little Britan Road in Newburgh, New York. She advised me that Mr. Holland was her husband's best friend.

On October 13, 2006, law enforcement contacted Thomas Investigative Communications, Inc., in Austin, Texas. Thomas Investigative Communications, Inc., informed law enforcement personnel that GPS tracking information for a portable location GPS device having an IMEI number 010307/00/023202/2 was being forwarded to a Yahoo! email address at cb_express@yahoo.com. Representatives of that company also informed law enforcement that their service allowed a customer to track a GPS device from an Internet website. That website's URL was <http://utrackonline.com>. In addition, subpoenas to Yahoo! for the subscriber information relating to the creation of the cb_express@yahoo.com E-Mail address uncovered that Edward Holland, 5871, registered an account with Yahoo! on August 10, 2006 at 15:52 PST.

A criminal history check on Edward Holland was negative.

On October 13, 2006, I sent a preservation letter to Thomas Investigative Communications, Inc., requesting that all subscriber information, IP connection log data, email account(s), and Yahoo! Groups related to the above listed Yahoo! user be preserved pending the issuance of formal legal process.

I have reason to believe that an examination and analysis of electronically stored data from Thomas Investigative Communications and/or website URL

<http://utrackonline.com> relating to Yahoo! ID cb_express and/or email address cb_express@yahoo.com will provide evidence of the crimes of stalking, a third degree crime and a violation of N.J.S.A. 2C:12-10 and a contempt of a court order, a fourth degree crime and a violation of N.J.S.A. 2C:29-9b.

In addition, an examination of the requested electronically stored data may assist in identifying additional actors who may have had exclusive access to the information located herein.

WHEREFORE, I have probable cause to believe that an examination of the requested records may reveal evidence material to the act of stalking, a third degree crime and a violation of N.J.S.A. 2C:12-10 and a contempt of a court order, a fourth degree crime and a violation of N.J.S.A. 2C:29-9b.

WHEREFORE, I respectfully request that the Court order Thomas Investigative Communications and/or website URL <http://utrackonline.com> to send this officer and
~~and all electronically stored data pertaining to Yahoo! ID cb_express and/or Yahoo! e-~~ detailed billing, IP connection data, methods of connection, connection times and dates, subscriber information for account(s) for the period August 10, 2006 through October 26, 2006, inclusive.

This application has not been previously submitted to any other Communications Data Warrant Judge.

Re: Receipt of Salary Checks

Dear Officer Curley:

We have been advised that you have not reported to Lt. William Gravina at the Town of Ramapo Police Department as required pursuant to your temporary disability status. This unexplained lack of contact is of concern, as we have no knowledge as to whether your absence is voluntary or involuntary or whether you are receiving your salary, which is being directly deposited into your previously designated bank account.

Effective with the pay period beginning December 15, 2007, the direct deposit of your salary checks will be stopped and the checks will be held at the Sergeant's office at the Ramapo Police Headquarters. You can pick them up there at your convenience.

If, as we hope, your absence can be explained and is not the result of some catastrophic event, then please contact this office to continue or to resume the direct deposit of your salary.

Very truly yours,

Ilan Schoenberger
Director of Finance
